

DOBU 201 FACE MASK

The DOBU 201 face mask is a NIOSH approved N95 respirator facepiece designed to help provide respiratory protection against airborne droplets and other contaminants that could carry viruses and bacteria. It has 95% filtration efficiency. This is a high-performance respirator face mask that is both, lightweight and rugged. The user can easily apply, adjust, and remove the face mask and its effective design provides a comfortable and secure fit for safety.

For more information, please visit the Hermetix website at www.hermetix.us and leave us a message or call 520 834-1923.